

March News

Room 101- Sarah Mitchell

March is here already! February flew by in a whirlwind. I don't know about your children but I loved the field trip to Richardson Nature Center. It was also heart-warming to take the kids for a Valentine visit to The Waters. The residents were so appreciative and it will definitely be something we do again. I hope the kids enjoyed sharing their favorite books with the class for I Love to Read month. I know I enjoyed learning some titles I wasn't familiar with until now. Thank you for sharing!

Learning Theme- Music, Transportation, Spring!

This month we will take what we learn on our field trip to MacPhail and build on it! We will also have some fun with planes, trains, and automobiles as well as do our best to usher in Spring!

Sharing/Kids Teach Kids

The kids have been doing a great job with “Kids Teach Kids” so we will continue with this format. I love how creative families are getting. If you need ideas, think lessons in cooking, exercise, science experiments and more. The kids are really interested in what their friends have to teach them and they ask really good questions. Thanks for your support on this!

Field Trip- MacPhail

On Thursday, March 1 we will be having a hands-on learning experience at MacPhail Center for Music. The students should arrive at 8:45 that day. This will be a fun morning for the students to explore and learn based on the book Max Found Two Sticks which we have read in class. Pick-up will be at 1:00 on the playground, as usual.

Woodworking- I'd like to offer woodworking to the kids sometime in March or April. This requires two volunteers to spend a couple hours at school working one-on-one with each student to help make a woodworking project. This is really fun and does not require extensive skills. Please let me know if this is something you are willing to help with! Thanks!

Conferences- March 29-30

I will be doing two days of Spring conferences. Sign-up will be out on my hall table beginning March 1st. I look forward to meeting with you all and sharing the fun growth and changes I've seen in your students so far this year!
