Mrs. Higgins

Happy New Year! I hope all of you enjoyed a wonderful holiday season with family and friends! If your family is anything like mine, everyone is ready to resume a daily routine. It will be so nice to see your dear kids come through the door.

We are welcoming a new friend to our classroom! Emma Johnson will be joining us when school resumes on Monday, January 7. It will be so fun for us all to get to know each other!

January Dates:

School Resumes - Monday, January 7

Field Trip to The Works - Thursday, January 16 ( wear preschool t-shirt! **)

No School Martin Luther King Day- Monday, January 21

Lucy's Half Birthday - Tuesday, January 22

Winter Gear:

Just a reminder to send the following items to school each day with your child: boots, coat, hat, mittens, snow pants and their purple bag to. The children did a such a wonderful job getting used to our new morning routine for where to put all of their belongings. It has been so fun to see them master getting dressed for going outside. These self-help skills fill them with pride. :-)

Snacks:

Thanks for sending in delicious snacks. Your children love sharing with their friends! We will continue with book sharing on snack day in January. When your child brings snack send one of the books they really like along with them!

Volunteer Opportunities:

I don't have any specific activities that require adult help planned in January, but I would like to invite families to come into the classroom if there is something that you would like to share with your child's classmates. Some ideas are (but not limited to):

- coming in to show the kids how to make something
- be a guest reader

If you are interested, please free to contact me at khiggins@lakeharrietumpreschool.org and we can make a plan.
