

preschool
est. 1953

Classroom Goals—Room 206

Ms. VanDeBoom

To develop prosocial behavior with peers for empathy, cooperation, and relationship building

To expand self-regulation, independence, and problem solving skills

To show respect for one's peers, one's environment, and oneself

To encourage the innate curiosity of students

To foster a positive and engaging learning environment to prepare for a smooth transition to kindergarten by advancing essential skills in literacy, numeracy, and social development