Room 205 – Mrs. Beebe

Happy February! I am so proud of these preschoolers and what they are doing. They are all working well together as a group, learning and cooperating with one another in all aspects of our preschool day. The children are having a great time using the sleds and shovels on the playground. We continue to remind children how to play safely on the playground in the winter. And the kids have shown flexibility and attention when we have closed the climber when it is too slippery.

February Learning Themes

Friendship, Love and Valentine's Day:

We will celebrate Valentine's Day and continue to learn about kindness, compassion and loving others. We will learn about being a good friend and practice daily. We will incorporate literature into our learning and share our own stories about these traits.

Fairytales and Fables:

We will be reading and discussing some favorite fairytales and fables. We will focus on identifying characters, making real-life connections between stories and characters, making predictions, retelling events, comparing and contrasting stories, and most importantly, finding joy in reading! The dramatic play area will be transformed into a vet clinic where they can pretend to care for animals.
